

ALMIGHTY FRUITFULNESS

The image features two golden wheat stalks in the foreground, slightly out of focus, against a clear blue sky. The stalks are positioned on the left side of the frame, with their heads pointing towards the right. The background is a soft, blurred field of wheat, suggesting a vast agricultural landscape. The overall tone is bright and hopeful, with the golden color of the wheat contrasting with the blue sky.

Principle/Law of Sowing and Reaping:

Everything begins with a seed.

Without a seed, there is no
fruitfulness, thus no fruit

The image features two golden wheat stalks in the foreground, slightly out of focus, set against a clear blue sky. The wheat is ripe and has long, thin awns. The overall scene is bright and natural, suggesting a harvest or a peaceful rural setting.

Genesis 1:11,27,28

11 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth”; and it was so.

27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. 28 Then God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

The background of the slide features two golden wheat stalks on the left side, set against a clear blue sky. The wheat is in sharp focus, with its long awns clearly visible. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a field of grain ready for harvest.

Matthew 13:22

22 Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23 But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.”

The background of the slide features two golden wheat stalks in the foreground, slightly out of focus, set against a clear blue sky. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

Matthew 28:18-20

18 And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”
