

A dimly lit photograph of a church congregation. The people are silhouetted against a bright light source, likely a window or altar. Many individuals have their arms raised in a gesture of prayer or praise. The overall mood is solemn and spiritual.

Weep For Yourself

April 7, 2019

When they led Him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, coming in from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus.

27 And following Him was a large croud of the people, and of the women who were mourning and lamenting Him.

28 But Jesus turning to them said “Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

29 For behold, the days are coming when they will say 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed'.

30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains,
'Fall on us', and to the hills 'Cover us'. 31 For if they do these things when the tree is green,
when will happen when it is dry?"

Luke 23: 26-31
